Core Conservatory (for ages 8 and up)

California Theatre Center's Core Conservatory is a 3-week long intensive workshop for young people ages 8 and up (must turn 8 by June 14, 2010) who are interested in developing and improving theatre skills. Focusing on the skills and discipline required to work in the theatre, the Core Conservatory stresses the commitment, cooperation and creativity necessary for the creation of quality art while building self-esteem and self-confidence. The Core Conservatory offers a rigorous, challenging, educational opportunity for students to work directly with theatre professionals.

Core Conservatory runs from 8:30 am to 4:00 pm and begins with morning workshops in improvisation, movement, acting and voice. Instruction may include workshops in stage combat, juggling, theatre history and playwriting. Morning workshops are followed by afternoon rehearsals and production sessions, culminating in weekend performances. Students bring a sack lunch for the 11:30 am to noon lunch break. Each Core Conservatory student who is a California resident, regardless of age, will receive credit from Foothill College.

At each Core Conservatory, there will be a Parent Information Meeting during the first week, a Parent Demonstration the last week of Conservatory, and performances on the final two days. In addition, each participant receives a 4-ticket coupon for admission to CTC's professional Summer Rep 2010 performances.

Junior Conservatory (for ages 5-8)

California Theatre Center's half-day Junior Conservatory is an 8-day long program for younger students ages 5-8 (must turn 5 by January 1, 2010). Classes introduce students to the concept of making plays from stories they know, have read, or will create; the program culminates in a presentation for family members on the last day. This program is the ideal preparation for students planning to attend the Core Conservatory in future summers.
